GREENEVILLE.
A. L. Potter Will Put Up Cottages on Newton Farm—The Roof Displaced—New Hydrant—Notes.
John Gay, now of New Haven, is visiting his brother, Charles Gay of Boswell avenue.
James McNeerney of North Main street has returned to his work, after a week's illness with grip.
Daniel Murphy of North Main street left this week for a visit to relatives and friends in New Britain.
Mr. Potter has begun extensive changes on the Newton farm, which will mean the building of several cottages on Boswell avenue.
The wind Wednesday night got under the roof of the barnyard, and blew the middle of the building and blew a considerable part of it off. It was replaced by workmen Thursday.
Charles Casey of Sixth street, who was employed by McPherson before the fire, leaves next week for Providence, where he has taken a position with a prominent clothing firm.
A new hydrant was put in Thursday at the corner of Sixth and North Main streets by Supt. Burnap, to take the place of the old one, which had become badly clogged. The repairs necessitated the shutting off of the water on North Main street above Sixth.

Rev. Father Cooney of Battle delivered the Lenten sermon at St. Mary's church Wednesday evening, a large congregation being present. The Rev.
H. A. Knefe of St. Mary's church was present at St. Joseph's church in New London Wednesday night and preached an appropriate Lenten sermon. Friday night there will be the Stations of the Cross.

A. L. Potter has completed cutting telephone poles on the Newton farm, on Boswell avenue, in the neighborhood of a thousand having been secured and drawn to Taft station, from which they will be shipped away. A number of carpenter have already been attempting to cut the timber on the wood lots has also been cut, and a sawmill has been in operation for some time.
Left for Portland, Me.
Thomas McNamara, clerk for several years in the mens' furnishing department at the Porteous & Mitchell company, left this week to enter the Portous & Mitchell store of the same firm.
He is to be in the same department there, and will be the buyer. Before he left, the local clerks, among whom he had been exceedingly popular, made him a parting gift. He was also one of the whist experts of the C. A. C., and will be missed from their winning team.

Surrounding Towns
Central Village.—Thomas Shannon has the distinction of being one of the oldest boys in America, having joined the order shortly after its organization.
New London.—Miss Irene Binkley of Sherman street, teacher of the North Main grammar school, left Thursday for Pinehurst, N. C., for a short vacation.
New London.—Horace Randall Slat-tore, at one time an actor on the variety stage, died Sunday from tuberculosis at his home of his sister, Miss Julia Slatore, 478 Broad street.
He leaves a brother, Frederick Slatore, in Chicago.
Mystic.—On Saturday Konrad Kret-zer received from Florida samples of oranges from the orange grove in Florida owned by E. E. Spicer of Groton.
These oranges were grown near the Indian river and are of an unusually large size.
Groton.—Invitations have been sent out to the members of the Sunday school of the Congregational church asking their attendance at a party Saturday night on board the schooner Mary Adelaide Randall, lying in the harbor. The youngsters are to be transported to the schooner in raw-boats.
Rockville.—Eight homeless children found good homes in this city Sunday.
They were brought here from the House of the Good Shepherd, a Catholic institution in Boston, by a representative of that place, and taken to St. Bernard's church, where at the morning masses, those who desired to adopt them had an opportunity to do so, and all were provided with homes.

Committee Favors Appropriations.

No Opposition and Sums of $5,000 for Celebration and $3,000 for Reliance Company Will Be Legalized—Milk Inspector's Salary.

Hartford, March 4.—Attorney Amos A. Browning, E. A. Tracy and Representative Tibbitts appeared before the committee on cities and boroughs this afternoon in support of the measure by which the vote of the town meeting in Norwich to appropriate $3,000 for the rebuilding of the Reliance Worsted company, in the matter of their taxes, and the other vote, by which the town would appropriate $5,000 for the celebration of the 250th anniversary of its founding, if the legislature would give it the right, are validated.
The situation in which the Reliance company and the town found themselves by reason of the death of President Hall of the New Haven road, after certain arrangements as to taxation had been made between him and the town officials, was explained to the committee, and the particulars regarding the appropriation for the celebration were made plain. It was stated to the committee that the reason the town came to the legislature was that there was no right in existence by which it could vote these appropriations.
In executive session later on in the afternoon the committee took up these matters and voted to report favorably on the combined measure, which all but insures its passage.
Milk Inspector's Salary.
Ex-Senator John H. Barnes asked the committee on public health and safety to make it possible for the city of Norwich to pay the $75 a month salary to its milk inspector named some months ago, by reporting favorably the bill which was introduced by Mr.
Bushman.
Upon reading the measure, Mr. Bishop of New Haven, a member of the committee, pointed out to Mr. Barnes that the measure was a general one affecting every milk inspector in the state, for one thing, and for another, it was not so drawn as to be retroactive, while Mr. Barnes had told the committee that it was expressly intended to cover the past months. The bill was withdrawn to be redrawn.
Judge Barnes also appeared before the committee on roads, bridges and rivers regarding the measure drawn by him, and introduced by Senator Bradford, requiring automobile owners to have painted on the glass of their interns the registry number of the machine, in order that it may be possible to identify machines at night, when the driver's name cannot be seen. There was no opposition to this.

C. A. C. TEAMS WIN ON NEXT TO FINAL NIGHT.

Whist Tourney With St. Mary's Society Ends Next Week.

The whist teams of the Central Athletic club and the St. Mary's T. A. B. society met Thursday evening in the temperance society rooms for another night of play in their tournament, which leaves them only one more night to play. The contest was a close one all the evening, with the C. A. C. team coming out ahead at the end by 13 points, 329 to 311. On totals in the series the C. A. C. teams now lead by 195 points. The scores:

AT BROADWAY THEATER.
Zaza.
There was not a large audience at the Broadway theater on Thursday evening when the Zaza was played by Mimi Angella and her company of Silcilian players. There were but few in the audience who understood the language, and the company received much applause for their local songs and dances. The company was coming woman showing much ability and being particularly strong in the last two acts. She is a young woman and will appear in English under the name of Charles Frohman. The company is very popular and interest lage as the language was not understood.
Those familiar with the play from the presentations in English were able to follow the story and it was considered that the principals were accomplished actors.

Christian Endeavors in Norwich.
The topic of the Y. P. S. C. E. meetings during the week beginning March 14, as suggested by the United society in its list of prayer meeting topics, is "What Are Our Liquor Laws and How Are They Enforced?"
In view of the timeliness and importance of this subject, the officers of the Norwich C. E. union, Rev. Geo.
H. Ewing president, urged local societies to make special effort to secure addresses by public spirited citizens from the standpoint of legislative experience.
The March number of the Connecticut Citizen contains valuable material summarizing the liquor laws of this state.

Sailors Find It Cold in New York.
The twin sisters of the battleship fleet, the New Jersey and the Rhode Island, lying off Tompkinsville, began to wink wisely at each other as soon as darkness fell over the bay last night like a giant of smoke who had picked up a nice bit of gossip. The little signal lights studing the foremasts flashed and went dark, flashed and went dark—red flashes for the doris, yellow for the doris.
It seemed necessary to ask old Bill Bowen, bos'n of the New Jersey, who was chaperoning a canvas upholstered launch from the battleship to the minicipal dock and back again, what this night talk was about. Mr. Bowen studied the busy lights, bit off a man size piece of eating tobacco and spoke as follows:
"Cap'n Murdoch of the Rhode Island is presentin' his compliments to the Old Man—that's Cap'n Southland of our ship and the Old Man is givin' him back again. Wait a moment now, old to got 'er. Cap'n Murdoch says: 'Are you keepin' warm old fellow? I'm nearly froze!' and the Old Man's quartermaster is a-sayin' for him: 'I've never been so chilly in my life, Murdoch. This is hell and repeat!' And the Old Man's got it right. Bless if I ever was so cold in me life!"
Whether or not Mr. Bowen's reading of the night signals was correct—seemed doubtful after hearing his anecdotes of the animals the New Jersey had picked up going around the world—it is certain that his remarks expressed the feeling of the officers and the sailors of the two ships. After months in the tropics they felt the keen weather of this port down to their bones, and the Old Man is ashore muffled in their overcoats. The officers of the dock on duty yesterday afternoon and last night did limited marathons up and down the docks, dancing to keep their feet warm. Captain Southland of the New Jersey took a constitutional before dinner and caught a fine cold.—New York Sun.

New Discovery Cures Eczema and Eradicates Minor Skin Troubles Overnight.

A few months ago the dispensers of poslam, the new discovery for the cure of eczema, decided to allow the druggists of the country to handle it. Previously to that time it could only be obtained direct from the laboratories.
Since this change in the method of distribution, poslam has met with the most phenomenal success of anything introduced to the drug trade in the last 20 years. All leading druggists, including Lee & Osgood and Smith's Drug Store in Norwich, are now carrying the special 50-cent size recently adopted, also the $2 jar.
This great success is not surprising when it is remembered that, in ecz-ma cases, poslam stops the itching with first application, proceeds to heal immediately, and cures chronic cases in a few weeks. In minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, acne, herpes, blotches, rash, etc., results show after an over-night application.
Experimental samples of poslam are sent to anyone by mail free of charge, by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.
Poslam is also on sale in Putnam at Larue's; in Danvers at Putnam's;

NORWICH TOWN.

Stenographic Lecture by Rev. Otis H. Green on African Missions—Personal Notes.

At the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday evening a stenographic lecture on missions in Africa was giving by Rev. Otis H. Green of Sterling, Conn.
First was thrown on the screen, Bringing in the Sheaves, which all joined in singing. Prayer followed.
The picture of Bishop Haubert was shown; then came an account of the cruelty of Portuguese slave traders.
The scene of a white man in a covered hammock on a trunk on his back, brought out the fact that a white man can walk only ten minutes at a time in the hot climate of Angola.
Bols and Carroll, who were about the supports, thatched with grasses sometimes twelve feet high; and hills eighteen feet high; the house of David was shown; all the struggles, sorrows and stone's picture; pictures of schools and scholars; all these were thrown quickly on the screen.
Then came a song: A baby in a bowl—boy of 15—the young man in his strength. It costs $15 a year to keep a boy in school. The cottage where Mr. and Mrs. Green lived was also pictured.
The seasons are two—a rainy and dry—each lasting six months. No one leaves for a journey during the rainy time. The missionary and his wife were obliged to return to this country because of African fever.
At the close, curios were shown—a wooden spoon, wild sandals, a beautiful, finely woven basket.

Funeral of Samuel Lovett.
The funeral of Samuel K. Lovett was held at his late residence on Washington street at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. After reading sections from the Scriptures, Rev. Mr. Ewing said in part: Enveloped by the great mysteries of life and death we know only in part. Yet there are certain truths upon which we have no reason to doubt. The life lived here, short and uncertain, is but a part of the eternal life.
With some the meaning of life is lost; others, amid all its struggles, sorrows and bitterness, grasp its meaning and enter upon its fuller strength and completeness in that part of our life that is after this. With faith without which has no lasting satisfaction. Its satisfactions spring from faith in God.
This brief, bitter separation is for one only a step ahead into the great, loving home of the Father.
A closing prayer followed.
The floral forms were choice and beautiful. A large attendance showed the esteem in which Mr. Lovett was held by his friends and neighbors and fellow citizens.
The deacons were nephews: George Babcock, Henry J. Wheeler, Edward Priggs and Charles Babcock. The burial was at Jewett City, the services at the grave being charge of Mr. Vernon lodge of Masons, of which he was a member.
Mr. Lovett was born in Lisbon.
In 1848 the son of Samuel Lovett and Elizabeth Tracy Lovett. He passed his early manhood in Jewett City and made his home in a two-story wagon through eastern Connecticut and Rhode Island for John C. Perkins, selling candy and cigars. He located at Norwich in 1874, where he was at one time he was employed as a conductor on the local street railway, and had worked in stores at Norwich Town. He had been a constable and was a court official for a number of years.
Mr. Lovett married Miss Barnes of Lisbon and she survives him.
Mrs. G. H. Ewing returns to Boston today.
The man who takes names for the city directory was about town Wednesday.
Mrs. Laura M. Allis of Brookfield, Vt., came to Norwich for a stay with her son, W. S. Allis.
